

Survey on Economic Perception

October 2023

We conducted a comprehensive analysis of the economic perception in Turkey. In this study, general economic perception, individual economic situation perception, future expectations, perceptions of the media and government, and opportunities for economic recovery were examined in detail. Please contact us to access the full report.